

Monthly Food Distribution

Maria Picazo – Recreation Manager
Jeremy Rogers – Community Services Director

Senior Center Food Programs

Program	Provider	Status	Frequency	Items Offered	Population Served
Senior Center Food Pantry	Senior Center in partnership with local grocery stores	On Hold	4 days a week	Meat, dairy, produce, bread, and canned goods	Seniors 50+
Monthly Drive-thru Food Distribution	Food Bank	Suspended	Once a month	Boxes of non-perishable items such as canned meats, dairy, grains, pantry staples and a bag of fresh produce	Open to all community members.
Monthly Drive-thru Produce Distribution	Food Bank	Active	Once a month	3 bags of fresh produce	Open to all community members.

Senior Center Food Pantry

- Served Senior Center members and other senior community members
- Informal partnership with local grocery stores
- Items included meat, dairy, produce, bread, and canned goods
- Average participation ranged from 30-50 participants
- Program put on hold at the start of the pandemic

Drive-Thru Food Distribution

- Served all community members
- Partnership with Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano County
- Items included fresh produce and boxes of non-perishable items
- Average participation 225 participants
- Program eliminated due to expended donation funds

Drive-Thru Produce Distribution

- Serves all community members
- Partnership with Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano County
- Items include 3 bags of fresh produce
- Average participation 225 participants
- Program is active

Senior Food Program

- Serves low-income Pinole residents aged 55 and above
- Partnership with Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano County
- Items include healthy pantry staples, eggs, cheese, produce, and assorted meats
- Requires a minimum of 50 participants
- Program status TBD

Additional Information

- Food Bank Partnership
- Local grocery stores
- Community Pantry Program
- SB 1383
- Food security providers
- College Pantry
- School Pantry

Staff Recommendation

Questions

